Part III-Organization's Primary Exempt Purpose: Our mission is to engage children in cross-cultural dialogue and understanding, inspiring them to protect the diversity of all life on earth.

Part III-Statement of Program Service Accomplishments-Line 28: GLOBIO Website: Supporting free, safe, educational resources; child-specific Glossopedia and online learning tools; Glossopedia is our multimedia online interactive encyclopedia, connecting kids to the world by supporting discovery of nature, animals, science and culture. Glossopedia is a first of its kind resource, but its real advantage is in the depth of its visually exciting, rich multi-media content, including photos and video of rare plants and endangered species from wildlife reserves and environments across the globe. Each Glossopedia article contains text, video clips, audio files, photo galleries, maps, interactive features, and content-related vocabulary lessons. Children explore Glossopedia content by using one of four search and discovery tools: a text search; "GeoSearch", a geography-based graphic interface; a photo image search and a current events "In The News" search. Glossopedia also includes a Fast Facts section, and an email tool so children can submit questions.

Apes Like Us: In pursuit of GLOBIO's mission, Apes Like Us is an education and public awareness project. GLOBIO's experience and support reaching children and educators is critical to spreading the key messages of the project. This partnership will aim to increase education and awareness of disappearing great ape populations to both children and educators around the world over the next three years.
